

Dear Sponsor;

The 45th annual Bridgeton Invitational Tournament will be played at Alden Field from July 29th through August 15th. Enjoy great competition, fantastic foods, celebrity guests and many other planned events. The Tournament Committee is currently seeking sponsors to help us to make this event a spectacular success. We are offering a wide range of promotional opportunities to allow you to determine your level of commitment to this occasion. What better way for you to express your appreciation to your customers and show your support for your community than by supporting this event which helps to fund so many local youth programs and activities.
